

The PRSP process in Albania

- Launched on November 2001 as National Strategy for Social and Economic Development (NSSED) - ‘Albanian Ownership’
- A broad participatory system:
 - the parliament, the central and local governments, the civil society (non-government organizations, professional associations and other social groups) and the international partners

The PRSP process in Albania

- Cooperation between Civil Society and Governments difficult
- Consultative meetings in 12 local communities in the villages and towns in four municipalities
- Participation of Parliament lower than planned
- The consultations with the local government took place in three rounds.